The Assembly of People's Power is the local higher body of state power, and, consequently, is vested with the highest authority for the exercise of state functions in their respective demarcations and for this, within the framework of their competence, and in accordance with the law, they exercise government.

Its mission is to strengthen and ratify the trust and recognition of our people, reaching a high level of economic and social development through the execution and solution of the approaches made by the population, in addition to supporting the entire process of implementation of the Guidelines of the Party and the Revolution.

For the exercise of its functions, it relies on the Work Commissions, the People's Councils, the Board of Directors, as well as on the initiative and broad participation of the population, in close coordination with the mass and social organizations.
